Forwards for information a copy of Dist. Superintendent of Police, Bijapur's letter re the arrest of Thukaram Bheem Sab and Abdul Khadar and not for the arrest of Kodikoppad Shivappa and Yelloji and requests that information may be obtained for the arrest of the other 3 accused.

It is not known what the District Superintendent of Police, Bijapur means. This office intimated that two persons by name Kodikoppa Shivappa and Yelloji have been arrested and by the District Magistrate Dharwar and if necessary extradition may be applied for. Instead of stating whether the surrender of these 2 persons are required or not, the District Superintendent of Police, Bijapur says that the District Magistrate Dharwar has issued a bailable warrant for the arrest of Thukaram Bheem Sab and Abdul Khadar and not Kodikoppad Shivappa and Yelloji. We have to surmise that the Dist. Supt of Police Shimoga does not know ~~the case~~ in what connection the jamedar Sheralikeppa has procured the arrest of these two persons. Evidently the Dist. It did not strike them perhaps that there may be another Sandal wood theft Case wherein the arrested persons are concerned.

The Dom. Shimoga requests that Govt. may intimate to him the arrest of the other 3 accused in the Sorab Sandalwood theft Case. ~~The~~ Police with the help of the Bombay police have to trace the accused and arrest them. After they are arrested, extradition proceedings have to be taken by the magistrate. After receipt of proceedings, ~~extra~~ requisition for their surrender will be usually made.
